I started playing in my adult years as a joke because a friend recruited me to get a team together sponsored by her employer. We didn't win any games but we looked cute in our uniforms. I enjoyed playing and ended up playing for two years with another team that actually made it to finals. The league was a 25+ womens league in West Palm Beach, Florida. I played all positions. I did well as defender however, I prefer mid or forward. Not sure what my division preference. Look forward to hearing from someone on Maui.

I'm in the Navy as a diver. I competed in track and soccer in high school and was recruited to compete in both sports at the University of Maine Augusta and the University of Southern Maine, but did not except due to the fact that I enlisted in the Navy. I was top scorer on my team my junior and senior years and scored the winning goal in the East vs. West tournament held every year for the top players in Maine. I'm good shape and think I could be a good asset for a team. Thanks for reading pick me!
